Sidney Claggett, whose genial countenance beams on the customers from behind the counters at J. M. Finn's store, has had a touch of the prevailing epidemic, and for a week was detained from his duties, as well as dejected, and on deck as usual.

Moses Flint, a brother of R. S. Flint, a well-known Roscommoner, was instantly killed by a falling tree at Grier's camp last Friday week.

Adelbert Price, who was well-known to the citizens of Grayling, died on last Thursday, in Southern Michigan, where he had moved sometime last Fall, from the effects of an abscess in his hip.

Miss Winnie F. Niles, fell on an icy walk at her home in Osceola Co., Saturday and fractured a rib, besides receiving a severe contusion of the head.

The music books for the school have been received, the youth of Grayling will soon be emulating Brignoli and Jenny Lind.

Remarkable by R. O. Joiner, of Allen, P. O. Hillsdale Co., Mich.: "Nothing gave my rheumatism such quick relief as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. -believe it infallible for rheumatism."

Benjamin Woodson, of Kalkaska, advises his wife, stating that she had left bed and board, without cause or provocation. No wonder she left him, no woman with any get up to her would live with a wooden man.

The present government of Roscommon is republican, but the democrats claim this to be simply an accident, and propose to prove it to be so at the village election March 8th. -Det. News.

The Detroit Journal says: "During the recent revival at Fairgrove, Tenacota county, 125 persons were converted, but 85 of these are playing the baby act and refuse to join the church." Better do this, than to join and act like babies afterward.

A Dickens Club was organized last week at the residence of G. H. Hicks, starting with sixteen members. A constitution was adopted, officers elected and the first meeting for work appointed at the residence of J. M. Finn, March 3d. We predict much pleasure and profit from the association.

The officers of the Roscommon and Crawford county Reading Circle, lately organized, are as follows: President, Geo. L. Alexander, Roscommon; Vice-President, Miss A. Mansfield, Grayling; Secretary, Prof. F. W. Lankenaw, Grayling; Treasurer, Miss Maggie Martin, Roscommon.

Alfred Bisson, a man unknown to the people of Roscommon county, was run over between the whistling post and St. Helena in that county, last Saturday week and crushed into a shapeless mass by a heavy log train. His remains were taken to Roscommon.

The gentleman from Deep River, who is a gentleman in all that relates to the game of Croquet, arrived in town on Tuesday. He is accompanied with one of Grayling's young ladies, and carries her picture taken on an oyster shell, as ornamentation does not effect it like it would a common photograph.

M. Y. Shirts went to Bay City Tuesday to enter the employ of the Michigan Central as a brakeman. The says the editor of a Northern exchange: We sympathize with him. We know times are hard and everything must be utilized, but would not it have been better to have devoted his shirts to the making of a crazy quilt, rather than try them at stopping a train of cars. -B. C. Tribune.

Miss Jennie Purchase returned on Tuesday night from her extended visit to friends at Saginaw.

Dora or Flora Temple, or whatever her name is, has been a regular bonanza for the local editors or reporters of the different papers in Michigan. Detroit papers are busily engaged writing her up at present, but she will turn up in some other locality soon and be telling a story of a different description.

Three recruits were mustered into the ranks of the G. A. R., by Marvin Poston last Saturday evening. We trust that more musters will follow soon.

That was a profound philosopher who compared advertising to a growing crop. He said: "The farmer plants his seed, and while he is farming the corn is growing. So with advertising. While you are sleeping or eating, your advertisement is being read by thousands of persons who never saw you, or heard of your business, and never would had it not been for your advertisement."

It is reported that we have a brute in the place, in other words a wife beater. If it be so give him the full extent of the law, for there can be no excuse for cussedness of that kind.

Good goods are always cheap, while poor goods are dear at any price. Especially is this true in the article of Drugs and Medicines. Twenty-five years of experience in handling drugs is an assurance of safety to the buyer; and the largest stock north of Bay City is a guarantee of the best value for their money. The only place where the above conditions are fulfilled in this county is at Dr. Traver's Drug Store.

The celebrated Indian Chiefs, Shoppengon, of Grayling, David Bowling Alley and Albert Land, Looker, high muck-a-mucks from St. Ignace and Saginaw, (in-a-horn) gave a series of Indian dances, the night of the ball, at the Opera House. Everybody was delighted and considered it the best show for the money that they had ever attended.

Chochoyung must have some pretty tough church members. The DEMOCRAT of that city says: "The females who say prayers on the carpet stolen from the rear of a store the day after the fire, are requested to return it, or their profession will be exposed."

The young man that we reported as being killed at Charron's camp, last week, it seems was only badly injured, and is slowly improving. We make this correction on his account, as it was bad enough to be hurt, let alone being kept killed, if we had not made the correction. The AVALANCHE has the reputation of being entirely truthful, and he would have always been considered dead, no difference how much he asserted to the contrary.

Leonard Warren, a former resident of one of the Queen of England's dominions, and with an antipathy to natives from the State of New York, who has been working in the woods for a short time, came into town last Saturday, and commenced celebrating Washington's birthday by laying in a supply of bug-jale for the occasion. His early display of veneration for the Father of his adopted country, caused his incarceration in the "cooler," where he rested his weary limbs until Monday morning, when Justice Hadley, who thought the cooling process still necessary, returned him to that purifying abode for five days where he will languish at the expense of the county. Patriotism in Mr. Warren's estimation, is at a low ebb in Grayling.

It Traver's Furniture Rooms can now be seen the largest stock and the greatest variety of goods ever brought in this county consisting in part of 12 styles of - Bedsteads 4 " - Spring beds 6 " - Mattresses 10 " - Rocking chairs 6 " - High chairs 5 " - Children's rockers 6 " - Cane seat chairs 4 " - Wood seat chairs 3 " - Dining tables 3 " - Cradles 3 " - Bureaus, Washstands, Center and side tables, Whatnots, Picture Frames &c. &c.

The above goods were all bought "cash with the order," therefore getting the best goods for lowest price, and will be sold cheaper than you can buy them anywhere else." Call and see.

That Tax Case.

So much interest has been manifested regarding the tax case referred to in our last issue, that we again state facts relating thereto, which proves there has been no neglect on the part of the authorities here.

The levy was made and the logs advertised Jan. 30th to be sold Feb'y 6th. Before the time of sale an injunction was granted by Judge Tuttle, restraining the sale. No bond was given by Pack, Woods & Co. at that time, but Feb'y 10th an application was made to Judge Tuttle to order a bond filed, or to dissolve the injunction, as without such bond the property would be removed from the county, and the Town be left without a remedy. The Judge promised that he would so order at once, but at this writing, the 23d, nothing has been received here, though twice written for. The logs are nearly all in the river and the balance being drawn. We do not wish to appear hasty in judgment, but from our standpoint it looks like -

Tattlers.
If there is not a "sheep" there certainly ought to be one invented at once for those human vipers who go about creating discord by tale bearing. Though they may use the identical language, yet a different intonation, a peculiar look, a comprehensive shrug may change the entire meaning, so what was meant as friendly criticism at most, may be made to convey the gravest charges and change a friendship of years to the most bitter enmity.

A breach of this character has been widening for the past two years between an official of this county and the writer which was closed by the gentlemen asking squarely what was meant by certain statements reported. This led to a complete rehearsal of the past and a fair action of some of our mutual friends, whom we appreciate will hear something to their advantage if they approach either again with venom laden tongue.

J. Maurice Finn returned on Tuesday from his visit to Washington City. He had an extended interview with Grover, which he describes quite graphically, but is a little off when you ask him about Maria.
